

REFLECTION

By: The Hedgerow Folk

Verse 1

E B E
What draws you in to the broken hearted?
A E E/Eb
What leads your heart into my shame?
C#m A
Was the day we left your pleasant garden
E B E
The day your heart began to break?

Verse 2

Your love is this flowing like a river
Outward into these barren lands
And your love is warming like a sunrise
It lights my eyes and then pulls me in

Verse 3

I've felt the weight of my emotion
Like at any moment I could break
But never have I felt so close to
The one who understands my pain

Bridge

C#m A E
How is it that in fear I find you
C#m A E
Giving courage to my timid heart?
C#m A E E/Eb C#m
Let the pain give way to new revival
E B E
You're so close when you feel so far

Verse 4

Oh love like man cannot imagine
Oh love like man has never seen
Was born out of this sweet reflection
You see yourself when you look at me
You see yourself when you look at me
